

Advanced Ankle and Foot

Dr. Scott C. Burdge, P.A.
21524 Kingsland Blvd, Katy, Texas 77450

Board Certified, American Board of Podiatric Surgery
Phone: 281-829-9315 Fax: 281-829-1237

Privacy Notice

This Privacy Notice is being provided to you as a requirement of a federal law, the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA). This Privacy Notice describes how we may use and disclose your protected health information to carry out treatment, payment for health care operations and for other purposes that we are permitted or required by law. It also describes your rights to access and control your protected health information in some cases. Your "protected health information" means any written and oral health information about you, including demographic data that can be used to identify you. This is health information that is created or received by your health care provider, and that relates to your past, present or future physical or mental health or condition.

I. Uses and Disclosures of Protected Health Information

Advanced Ankle and Foot may use your protected health information for purposes of providing treatment, obtaining payment for treatment and conducting health care operations. Your protected health information may be used or disclosed only for these purposes unless the facility has obtained your authorization or the use or disclosure is otherwise permitted by the HIPAA privacy regulations or state law.

Disclosures of your protected health information for the purposes described in this privacy notice may be made in writing, orally or electronically.

Treatment

Advanced Ankle and Foot will use and disclose your protected health information to provide, coordinate or manage your health care and any related services. This includes the coordination or management of your health care with a third party for treatment purposes. For example, we may disclose your protected health information to a pharmacy to fill a prescription or to a laboratory to order a blood test. We may also disclose protected health information to physicians who may be treating your or consulting with the facility with respect to your care. In some cases, we may also disclose your protected health information to an outside treatment provider for purposes of the treatment activities of the other provider.

Payment

Your protected health information will be used as needed to obtain payment for the services that we provide. This may include certain communications to your health insurance company to get approval for the procedure that we have scheduled. For example, we may need to disclose information to your health insurance company to get prior approval for the surgery. We may also disclose protected health information to your health insurance company to determine whether you are eligible for benefits or whether a particular service is covered under your health plan. In order to get payment for the services we provide to you, we may also need to disclose your protected health information to your health insurance company to demonstrate the medical necessity of the services or (as required by your insurance company) for utilization review. We may also disclose patient information to another provider involved in your care for the other provider's payment activities. This may include disclosure of demographic information to anesthesia care providers for payment of their services.

Operations

Advanced Ankle and Foot may use or disclose your protected health information, as necessary for our own health care operations to provide quality care to all patients. Health care operations include such activities as: quality assessment and improvement activities, employee review activities, training programs including those in which students, trainees or practitioners in health care learn under supervision, accreditation, certification, licensing or credentialing activities, review and auditing, including compliance reviews, medical reviews, legal services and maintaining compliance programs and business management and general administrative activities. In certain situations, we may also disclose patient information to another provider or health plan for their health care operations.

Other Uses and Disclosures

As part of treatment, payment and healthcare operations, Advanced Ankle and Foot may also use or disclose your protected health information for the following purposes: to remind you of your surgery date, to inform you of potential treatment alternative options, to inform you of health-related benefits or services that may be of interest to you.

II. Uses and Disclosures Beyond Treatment, Payment, and Health Care Operations Permitted Without Authorization or Opportunity to Object.

Federal privacy rules allow us to use or disclose your protected health information without your permission or authorization for a number of reasons including the following:

A. When Legally Required:

We will disclose your protected health information when we are required to do so by and federal, state or local law.

B. When There are Risks to Public Health:

We may disclose your protected health information for the following public activities and purposes:

- To prevent, control or report disease, injury or disability as permitted by law
- To report vital events such as birth or death as permitted or required by law
- To conduct public health surveillance, investigations and interventions as permitted or required by law.
- To collect or report adverse events and product defects, track FDA regulated products, enable product recalls, repairs or replacements to the FDA and to conduct post marketing surveillance.
- To notify a person who has been exposed to a communicable disease or who may be at risk of contracting or spreading a disease as authorized by law.
- To report to an employer information about an individual who is a member of the workforce as legally permitted or required.

C. To Report Suspected Abuse, Neglect or Domestic Violence:

We may notify government authorities if we believe that a patient is the victim of abuse, neglect or domestic violence. We will make this disclosure only when specifically required or authorized by law or when the patient agrees to the disclosure.

D. To Conduct Health Oversight Activities:

We may disclose your protected health information to a health oversight agency for activities including audits; civil, administrative or criminal investigations, proceeding or actions; inspections; licensure or disciplinary health information under this authority if you are the subject of an investigation and your health information is not directly related to your receipt of health care or public benefits.

E. In Connection with Judicial and Administrative Proceedings:

We may disclose your protected health information in the course of any judicial or administrative proceeding in response to an order of a court or administrative tribunal as expressly authorized such order. In certain circumstances, we may disclose your protected health information in response to a subpoena to the extent authorized by state law if we receive satisfactory assurances that you have been notified of this request or that an effort was made to secure a protective order.

F. For Law Enforcement Purposes:

We may disclose your protected health information to a law enforcement official for law enforcement purposes as follows:

- As required by law for reporting of certain types of wounds or other physical injuries.
- Pursuant to court order, court ordered warrant, subpoena, summons or similar process.
- For the purpose of identifying or locating a suspect fugitive, material witness or missing person.
- Under certain limited circumstances, when you are the victim of a crime.
- To a law enforcement official if the facility has a suspicion that your health condition was the result of criminal conduct.
- In an emergency to report a crime.

G. To Coroners, Funeral Directors and for Organ Donation:

We may disclose protected health information to a coroner or medical examiner for identification purposes to determine cause of death or for the coroner or medical examiner to perform other duties authorized by law. We may also disclose protected health information to a funeral director, as authorized by law, in order to permit the funeral director to carry out their duties. We may disclose such information reasonable anticipation of death. Protected health information may be used and disclosed for cadaveric organ, eye or tissue donation purposes.

H. For Research Purposes:

We may use or disclose your protected health information for research when the use or disclosure for research has been approved by an institutional review board that has reviewed the research proposal protocols to address the privacy of your protected health information.

I. In the Event of a Serious Threat to Health or Safety:

We may, consistent with applicable law and ethical standards of conduct, use or disclose your protected health information if we believe in good faith that such use or disclosure is necessary to prevent or lessen a serious and imminent threat to your health or safety or to the health and safety of the public.

J. For Specified Government Functions:

In certain circumstances, federal regulations authorize the facility to use or disclose your protected health information and to facilitate specified government functions relating to military and veteran activities, national security and intelligence activities, protective services for the President and others, medical suitability determinations, correctional institutional and law enforcement custodial situations.

K. For Worker's Compensation:

Advanced Ankle and Foot may release your health information to comply with worker's compensation laws or similar programs.

III. Uses and Disclosures Permitted Without Authorization but with Opportunity to Object:

We may disclose your protected health information to your family member or a close personal friend if it is directly relevant to the person's involvement in your surgery/treatment or payment related to your surgery/treatment. We can also disclose your information in connection with trying to locate or notify family members or others involved in your care concerning your location, condition or death.

You may object to these disclosures. If you do not object to these disclosures or we can infer from the circumstances that you do not object or we determine, in the exercise of our professional judgement, that it is in your best interest for us to make disclosure of information that is directly relevant to the person's involvement with your care, we may disclose your protected health information as described.

IV. Uses and Disclosures Which You Authorize:

Other than as stated above, we will not disclose your health information other than with your written authorization. You may revoke your authorization in writing at any time except to the extent that we have taken action in reliance upon the authorization.

V. Your Rights:

You have the following rights regarding your health information:

A. The Right to Inspect and Copy your Protected Health Information.

You may inspect and obtain a copy of your protected health information that is contained in a designated record set for as long as we maintain the protected health information. A "designated record set" contains medical and billing records and any other records that your physician and the facility uses for making decisions about you.

Under federal law, however, you may not inspect or copy the following records: psychotherapy notes; information compiled in reasonable anticipation of, or for use in, a civil, criminal or administrative action or proceeding; and protected health information that is subject to a law that prohibits access to protected health information. Depending on the circumstances, you may have the right to have a decision to deny access reviewed.

We may deny your request to inspect or copy your protected health information if, in our professional judgement, we determine that the access requested is likely to endanger your life or safety or that of another person, or that it is likely to cause substantial harm to another person referenced within the information. You have the right to request a review of the decision. To inspect and copy your medical information, you must submit a written request to the Privacy Officer whose contact information is listed on the last page of this Privacy Notice. If you request a copy of your information, we may charge you a fee for the costs of copying, mailing or other costs incurred by us in complying with your request. Please contact our Privacy Officer if you have questions about access to your medical records.

B. The Right to Request a Restriction on Uses and Disclosures of Your Protected Health Information:

You may ask us not to use or disclose certain parts of your protected health information for the purposes of treatment, payment or health care operations. You may also request that we not disclose your health information to family members or friends who may be involved in your care or for notification purposes as described in this Privacy Notice. Your request must state the specific restriction requested and to whom you want the restriction to apply.

The facility is not required to agree to a restriction that you request. We will notify you if we deny your request to a restriction. If the facility does agree to the requested restriction, we may not sue or disclose your protected health information in violation of that restriction unless it is needed to provide emergency treatment. Under certain circumstances, we may terminate our agreement to a restriction. You may request a restriction by contacting the Privacy Officer.

C. The Right to Receive Confidential Communications from us by Alternative Means or at an Alternative Location:

You have the right to request that we communicate with you in certain ways. We will accommodate reasonable requests. We may condition this accommodation by asking you for information as to how payment will be handled or specification of an alternative address or other method of contact. We will not require you to provide an explanation for your request. Requests must be made in writing to our Privacy Officer.

D. The Right to Request Amendments to Your Protected Health Information:

You may request an amendment of protected health information about you in a designated record set for as long as we maintain this information. In certain cases, we may deny your request for an amendment. If we deny your request for amendment, you have the right to file a statement of disagreement with us and we may prepare a rebuttal to your statement and will provide you with a copy of any such rebuttal. Requests for amendment must be in writing and must be directed to our Privacy officer. In this written request, you must also provide a reason to support the requested amendment.

E. The Right to Receive an Accounting:

You have the right to request an accounting of certain disclosures of your protected health information made by the facility. The right applies to disclosures for purposes other than treatment, payment or health care operations as described in this Privacy Notice. We are also not required to account for disclosures that you requested, disclosures that you agreed to by signing an authorization from disclosure for a facility directory to friends or family members involved in your care, or certain other disclosures we are permitted to make without your authorization. The request for an accounting must be made in writing to our Privacy Officer. The request should specify the time period sought for the accounting. Accounting requests may not be made for periods of time in excess of six years. We will provide the first accounting you request during any 12-month period without charge. Subsequent accounting requests may be subject to a reasonable cost-based fee.

F. The Right to Obtain a Paper copy of This Notice:

Upon request, we will provide a separate paper copy of this notice even if you have already received a copy of the notice or have agreed to accept this notice electronically.

VI. Our Duties:

Advanced Ankle and Foot is required by law to maintain the privacy of your health information and to provide you with this Privacy Notice of our duties and privacy practices. We are required to abide by terms of this notice as may be amended from time to time. We reserve the right to change the terms of this notice and to make the new notice provisions effective for all future protected health information that we maintain. If Advanced Ankle and Foot changes our notice, we will provide a copy of the revised notice for public review with copies available upon request.

VII. Complaints:

You have the right to express complaints to the facility and to the Secretary of Health and Human Services if you believe that your privacy rights have been violated. You may complain directly to Advanced Ankle and Foot by contacting the Privacy Officer verbally or in writing, using the contact information listed at the end of this notice. We encourage you to express any concerns you may have regarding the privacy of your information. You will not be retaliated against in any way for filing a complaint.

VIII. Contact Person

Advanced Ankle and Foot's contact person for all issues regarding patient privacy and your rights under the federal privacy standards is the Privacy Officer. Information regarding matters covered by this notice can be requested by contacting the Privacy Officer. If you feel that your privacy rights have been violated by this facility, you may submit a complaint to our Privacy Officer by sending it to:

Cherie Kridner, Office Manager
Advanced Ankle & Foot
21524 Kingsland Blvd.
Katy, Texas 77450

Contact can also be made via telephone at: 281-829-9315.

IX. Effective Date

This notice is effective September 6, 2018

